30 Times Thumbs-up for The Crocodiles!

Montreal (June 7, 2010) - Delphis Films is proud to announce the huge success of its film The Crocodiles across the globe, which is undoubtedly the Most Awarded Children's Film of the Year!

In a little over a year, 30 prizes have been awarded to The Crocodiles by prestigious festivals that include: Lion Audience Award from Cinekid (Amsterdam), a Moscow Teddy Bear from Russia, a Popcorn Award from Istanbul, the Golden Elephant in Hyderabad, a Silver Cairo from Egypt, Audience Award won in Leeds (UK), Golden Sprockets Awards (Toronto), Children's Jury Prize in Seattle (USA) and over the weekend the Main Prize of the Children's Jury for Best Feature Film for Youth at Zlin (Czech Rep). On top of that long list was also added the Germany LOLA Prize for Best Children Film given in April 2010!

“The Crocodiles” is a film that features a group of kids in a small town who, despite their individual weaknesses, form a crime buster club and build a heart warming friendship! The sequel The Crocodiles Strike Back was screened at the Cannes Film Market and promises to be another major hit with even greater production value!

The adventure-packed films have been successful commercially as well. Released in Germany by Constantin Film, they have been sold to a number of territories including Italy, France, Taiwan, Malaysia, Sweden, Canada, Latin America, etc.
